H-Factor - the rehearsal originally scheduled for today has been pushed back to Friday. Robe choir and H-Factor will rehearse this week on Thursday instead of Wednesday. Any coffeehouse music acts who were unable to audition on Friday should see Mr. Glaser today or tomorrow to arrange a time to audition this week.

Holicong Cafeteria: Wednesday, October 26th is dollar breakfast in the cafeteria. Breakfast and drinks are available every day in the cafeteria.

Red Ribbon Week: Today is the beginning of Red Ribbon Week. Red Ribbon Week started over twenty years ago to honor Drug Enforcement Officer Kiki Camarena when he was tortured and murdered in the line of duty. One of the lessons that we should all take from his death is that Drugs Kill. They kill in many ways...they kill your mind and body through drug use, they kill police that risk their lives to prevent them from being in our communities, they kill relationships between friends and family. Drugs are not worth the risk! P.O.P.S. is sponsoring Red Ribbon Week to celebrate all of the healthy choices the students at Holicong do instead of drugs. Our theme this week is Live Drug-Free Holicong! Life is about making choices. Choose to be who you are. Be proud of who you are. Don't let peer, or media pressure make you do something that may change your life, or the lives of the people who love you. Each day this week there are different events the P.O.P.S. is hosting for us to have fun with the good choices we make with our friends to remain drug free. Today everyone is receiving a red ribbon. Please wear your ribbons each day this week to show our unity at Holicong. Tomorrow is slipper day. Wear your slippers at school because "it's easy to give drugs the slip!" Be sure to wear a Red Shirt on Wednesday and be part of the yearbook picture.

Listen to announcements for information about auditions for singers, poets, and artists. It's a great night to celebrate the arts at Holicong whether you're on stage or in the audience. Make plans to be there!

Soles4Souls: Do you have a pair of shoes sitting in your closet or garage collecting dust? After you wore them for a while and then outgrew them, the shoes now just sit in your house, untouched. Donate those to Soles4Souls, a donation drive sponsored by Holicong alum and East sophomore Andrew L. He is collecting gently used shoes for Soles4Souls, an organization that donates to families in poverty. His goal is to collect 350 pairs of shoes. Please bring in shoes and place them in the bin marked Soles4Souls. You'll be helping families around the world. Thanks for your help.
