

Homework

Gayman's Five Beliefs

Homework

Gayman's Five Beliefs

-
-
1. Purpose: Promote student growth and reinforce what is learned in the classroom. Students independently practice what they learned as well as their time management skills.
-
-

Homework

Gayman's Five Beliefs

-
-
2. Assessment: Homework is not graded. However, students will be held responsible for completing all assigned homework.

Homework

Gayman's Five Beliefs

3. Time Allotment: Homework is assigned Monday through Thursday. No routine weekend or holiday assignments will be made. As a rule of thumb 10 minutes per grade level will be assigned. For example: at 6th grade, $10 \times 6 = 60$ minutes.

Homework

Gayman's Five Beliefs

4. Differentiation: Homework can vary depending upon the specific needs of students. This may include time, amount and purpose of homework.

Homework

Gayman's Five Beliefs

5. Long-term Projects: Long-term projects are directly related to the curriculum. Such projects require children to use secure skills only. Expectations are clearly defined and timelines are established and published.

