

Mrs. Ojeda's

Activities ...

This is by no means a comprehensive list. These are simply suggestions of activities you can use to help your child practice reading, writing, and math skills through the summer. Try to practice every day or at least every other day. Have a great summer!

Math Activities:

- Practice your facts using flashcards for addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division, or Freckle. Keep building that fact fluency so your facts become automatic!
- Play board games that use math skills: Monopoly, Uno, Sorry, Checkers, Chutes and Ladders, Shut the Box, etc.
- Practice using fractions as you measure ingredients for recipes. Try doubling or halving the recipe.
- Complete any unused pages from your math books, especially the Extra Practice and Fluency books.

Writing Activities:

Write every day, or least every other day.

- Write about any of the journal prompts included (list is below).
- Don't forget about wordless books: you can write the story to follow the illustrations! Authors for this style are David Wiesner, Tomie dePaola, Alexandra Day, Peter Spier, and others.
- White out the words from comic strips and then write your own speech bubbles and captions.
- Take digital pictures of your summer events. Add captions to each picture.
- Write a letter to a relative, friend, classmate, teacher, or pen pal.
- Write a "how-to" piece to tell about how to play a favorite game.
- Describe a favorite activity or vacation place.
- Write a story in the style of a favorite author.
- Keep a journal or diary about things you've done, including your thoughts and feelings.
- Draw a picture and describe it with as many adjectives and descriptive language as possible.
- Here are some journal prompts that might get you started:
 - ✓ If I could become invisible
 - ✓ The happiest moment of my life
 - ✓ Why I like animals
 - ✓ My favorite movie
 - ✓ My favorite television show
 - ✓ My fondest school memory
 - ✓ I will tell you a story that is only half true
 - ✓ The person that I admire
 - ✓ The most interesting person that I have ever met
 - ✓ The biggest mess that I ever got myself into
 - ✓ I have something to tell you
 - ✓ My fondest summer memory
 - ✓ Did you know that...
 - ✓ The scariest thing that ever happened to me
 - ✓ My biggest goal in life
 - ✓ I once had a scary dream
 - ✓ Things are not going well for me right now
 - ✓ I often get frustrated
 - ✓ This book was good
 - ✓ I just can't seem to get along
 - ✓ The things that bug me
 - ✓ My favorite music group

Reading Activities:

Please refer to the Central Bucks website for suggested titles for summer reading:

Bucks County Public Library also has a summer reading program called Summer Quest that kicks off on June 19.

Taking 15-20 minutes every day to enjoy a good book is a fantastic way to help your child maintain progress and stamina from the year.

Please refer to Linden's Library page for Linden Summer Reading Program.
