Book Title _____

Respond to questions #1, #2, and #3 in four to five sentences.

Write one question for #4.

1. Explain how the title is important to events or details of the book.
(If you don't think the title fits, explain why and suggest an alternative and your reasoning.)

2. Would you recommend this book to someone? If so, who and why? If not, why not

3. All books fit into the categories of a window or mirror.

“Mirror” books are those readers can make personal connections to.
Books are mirrors when they have characters, settings, and/or plots that readers can relate to.

Window books allow readers to see into the lives and experiences of others. Readers may not make personal connections to “window” books, yet they can learn and gain perspective about others’ experiences.

Explain why you think this book is a mirror or window book.
If you aren't sure, THAT IS OKAY!

4. Write your own question about the book that you would like to discuss in the meeting in September.
