

The Most Amazing Mom Ever!

By: Dani F.

I have the most terrific mom ever! My mom deserves the celebrity treatment because she is hardworking helpful and cares about her kids.

First of all, my mom is hardworking because she has a job. My mom works at a fast food restaurant and on Fridays mostly she gets paid money. She always uses the money provide stuff for me my brothers. Another way my mom is hardworking is she cleans around the house a lot by getting the dishes from around the house. She also helps clean around the house by vacuuming, sweeping, mopping the floors and washing off the tables and counters. My mom does a lot of hardworking things to be an awesome mom! My mom also cooks dinner every night and goes grocery shopping when were running low on food. As you can see my mom is constantly working hard because some nights she has to work than come straight home and cook dinner for us then clean.

In addition to my mom being hardworking, she is also really helpful. One reason why my mom is helpful is she drives me to school when I ask and that's a big help for me because walking takes forever to walk and it drains all my energy for when school starts. My excellent mom also gives me a good education because she puts me in a good school with lots of support. She also gives me good education when she helps with my spelling homework because when we have spelling test on Friday my mom helps me study for the words every day of the week after school for 15 minutes in till Friday comes. Also, my mom is very helpful when she gives me advice. For example, I'm a new kid at this school and I've never changed schools before. My mom said that when she was younger she changed schools all the time. So she gave me advice and she said ill be fine and to be calm.

Finally, My mom always cares about me and my brothers by giving us presents sometimes when we don't ask. Also, when we want something from the store like a snack she gets it for us because she knows we asked. Another way my mom is caring is if I'm upset my mom can use her mom powers and sense that something is wrong and she comforts me and gives me hugs and that's what caring mothers do. She also cares a lot when she comes to my school meetings and conferences. She gives me good feedback during the meetings and at the end of the meetings.

To summarize, my mom is the best mom ever because she's hard working, helpful and cares a lot about me and my brothers. My mom does a lot for me but I never actually realize how much my mom does until I think about what she dose for me. Thank you mom for everything you are truly my best friend!
