Approved the minutes of the February 25, 2020 School Board Meeting

Heard Public Comment:

Jay Moskowitz addressed the Board regarding his employment history as Special Education Supervisor with Central Bucks School District and future employment, which is on tonight's agenda

Heard the Superintendent's Report:

Recognition of CB South teacher Mr. Woodring

Mr. Frank Woodring is being awarded the VFW Teacher of the Year Award for Pennsylvania for the 2019-2020 school year. Subsequently, he is now a candidate for the Smart/Maher VFW National Citizenship Education Teacher Award. This award recognizes exceptional teachers for their outstanding commitment to teaching Americanism and Patriotism to their students.

Mr. Woodring is a US Navy Veteran and is the advisor for the Operation Eternal Gratitude (OEG) club at CB South, which is a military support club that sends care package overseas to deployed troops.

Last school year, the club sent over 11,000 pounds of items to various locations.

In addition, Mr. Woodring helped create South's Wall of Honor which recognizes former CB South students who have served in different military roles after graduation.

Mr. Woodring also oversees the students in the Veterans Day committee who organize a meaningful annual Veteran's Day ceremony at the school.

Superintendent's Update

Dr. Kopicki provided state, country, and worldwide COVID-19 statistics, as well as self-quarantine, testing, social distancing, cleaning and prevention information. Dr. Kopicki outlined logistics in the event of an extended school closure. Field trips and staff conferences are canceled, but in-district events will be held as scheduled at this time.
