- ✓ Thank you to Calli Pasternack and friends! They surprised the faculty & staff with wonderful words of encouragement and motivation as we walked in on Tuesday (pictures attached and on website). A huge shout out to them for “Getting in the Game” and showing our community we have students that are committed to showing acts of gratitude and kindness...this is just one example and we know it happens all the time in different ways!
- ✓ Snow Days – For any future snow days – students will not report to school and work will be asynchronous. Teachers will post work to Canvas pages by 9:00 AM the morning of the snow day and provide any specific instructions for the day. As with Wednesdays – student attendance will be taken based on the completion of the work/tasks assigned.
- ✓ Parent Council – The Parent Council presentation “live video” and regular powerpoint are posted on the website. A special thanks to Mrs. Wentz (Student activities), Mrs. Louderback (Social-Emotional Health, Program Planning), Mr. Chodoroff, and Mr. Glaser (Concert, Musical Updates), Mr. Rittenhouse (Winter & Spring Athletics), Mrs. Lovuolo (LanSchool Overview), and Mrs. Radice (Health & Safety) for making time to provide updates for our community!
 - LanSchool Overview – We created a standalone video of Mrs. Lovuolo’s presentation showing how this technology is used – thank you Mrs. Lovuolo!
- ✓ Academic Progress Updates – All students should have completed this in Resource class on Thursday or Friday. If students were absent they can still do this on their own. We hope this is helpful for students & parents to celebrate accomplishments to this point in the year and make a plan for turning in any work!
- ✓ “How to Take Care of Ourselves & Our Mental Health” – Here is the link to the video created by Ms. Blankenburg and shared with all students last Thursday & Friday in resource. We have posted it on our website for our parents, students, and staff (and others) to reference as needed. This is a discussion topic for Thursday’s Parent Council but we will not watch the video but we encourage those who haven’t seen it to watch (it is 9:16).
 - Social Emotional Health & Wellness Page – This page is in the “Parents/Guardians” tab and we have now “linked” it to the homepage for easier “one-click” access. This page currently includes professional articles, Holicong & CB presentations from previous Parent Councils, classes, and other venues, and other resources on general wellness, anxiety stress and mental health, school refusal, vaping, suicide prevention and response, and an excellent article about adolescence (12 pages) that I have included here – Developmental Characteristics of Young Adolescents. We will review this page at the end of the marking period and include any new resources we have to share.
 - Guidance Groups – Mrs. Louderback (Stress Management Group), Ms. Blankenburg (Family Issues), and Mr. Striano (Organization & Academic Support) are currently running groups based on student feedback from before break. If a student did not complete the sign up and interested, please reach out to Mrs. McCusker at dmccusker@cbsd.org (guidance secretary) to see if you can still join!

- ✓ Academic Intervention & Resource – Students on the D/F report and behind on academic assignments will be expected to remain in resource class when online/at home. Our staff is focusing on reaching out to our students that are struggling with getting work in and trying to communicate with as many students & parents as we can before the break in the hopes that students get caught up on everything before the winter holiday
