

Daily Announcements for Wednesday, March 11, 2020 – A Day

Holicong Track: Holicong Boys and Girls Track and Field will begin on Wednesday, March 18th. Practice will be from 2:50-4:30. You can change in the boys/girls PE locker rooms after school to get ready for practice. Make sure you have a sweatshirt, sweatpants, running sneakers and water for practice. If you have any questions, please see or email Coach Cochran.

Holicong Music Classes: All students who have class 5th, 6th, or 7th period today (and this includes Mr. C's PEN class) should bring something to work on quietly or a free-reading book. As you enter the auditorium for class please be aware that there will be a dress rehearsal going on.

Holicong Musical "Xanadu": All students participating in today's dress rehearsal. Please remember that you are to leave your class or lunch at 11:40. Go to your locker to drop off your books and get costumes and report to the auditorium/music area. 8th graders, don't forget to bring your lunch down with you and quickly eat in Mr. Glaser's room before changing into your costume. "T" cast actors who have mics at the beginning of the show should try to be in costume and mic'd up by 11:55 for sound check.

Holicong Concussion Seminar for 7th & 8th Grade: Attention all 7th and 8th Graders planning on trying out for Spring sports at Holicong: there will be a concussion seminar on Monday March 16th from 2:45 to 3:45 in the auditorium. If have previously attended the concussion seminar in the fall, you do not need to attend a second time. Anyone who has not had a concussion impact test will be tested following the seminar. Track athletes do not require impact testing.

Holicong Baseball: Attention 7th and 8th Graders interested in playing JV or Varsity Baseball at Holicong this Spring: There will be a meeting for all interested players on Tuesday March 17th from 2:45 – 3:15. There will be no practice this day. Try-outs for the 8th grade team will begin on Thursday March 19th after school. The 7th grade tryouts will be Friday, March 20th after school. Please make sure all your paperwork is completed and turned into Mrs. McCusker in the Guidance Office prior to the first day of practice. Questions please see Mr. Reed or Mr. Rittenhouse

Holicong 8th Grade Girls Soccer: Attention 8th Grade girls trying out for Holicong Spring soccer. There will be a meeting on Thursday, March 12th from 2:45 to 3:15 in the commons. Please plan on attending.

Holicong Art Club: There is no Art Club meeting this week. Stay tuned for a new date.

Holicong Reading Olympics: There is an important Reading Olympics meeting on Thursday, during Advisory, in the Library. Permission forms will be due at this time. If you need a permission forms, please come to the Library today.

Holicong Boys Basketball: The JV and Varsity Boys Basketball teams will be having their end of the year pizza party on Monday, March 16th from 2:45-4:30. Each player should turn in their clean uniform, practice jersey and $5 for food and drinks to Coach Barno or Coach Hepler.