

Holicong Community,

The time is here! We are excited to announce the different ways you can watch both casts perform Freaky Friday! You read that correctly – due to the number of students involved in the Holicong musical, it is tradition to have two separate casts. This year we have the Orange cast and the Purple cast. If you want to watch the show to see certain cast members, you can either ask them or check the cast lists on the ticket website. Our license from Music Theater International allows us to stream at specific times, not on demand, so we have multiple times for each cast.

We have attached a pdf for each cast that provides all the information you need, including dates, purchase information, links to purchase tickets, and a video that even shows you how to do this! The times and pdf's are also on the Holicong calendar but please note – it is important that you purchase the tickets on the links in advance! Please do not just join at 7:00 PM or 2:00 PM (matinees) and expect to get right in the show – we don't want you to miss a minute of these performances.
