

Comprehension Strategies

Go on a Picture Walk

- Look at the cover page and discuss the picture and title.
- Look at the pictures in the story and discuss what you see in the pictures.
- Think about what is happening in the picture.
- Make a prediction about what you think will happen in the story.

Make Predictions

- Look at the pictures.
- Think about what you read or what was read to you.
- Think about what is happening in the story.
- Make a guess about what you think will happen next while reading.

Create visualizations

- Read and/or listen to the story.
- Get a picture in your mind of what is happening.
- Get a picture in your mind of what the character looks like or what he/she is doing.
- Use the pictures in your brain to help you remember what is happening in the story.

Make Inferences

Be a reading detective - Look for clues and use them to come up with an idea about what you are reading

- Look at the pictures and think about what is happening.
- Listen to or read a story.
- Ask yourself what is happening.
- Think about what you already know in your brain.
- Think about how the character feels.
- Think about how you would feel if you were that character.
- Put all of the information together to make a guess about what you think is happening in the story.