

Reading Together

"Children develop a love of stories and poems when they read or are read to on a regular basis. These experiences enrich and expand their world and encourage imagination."

Debbie Urso
Keystone State Literacy Association
Families and Reading Chair