Non-Fiction Lesson

Reading/Language Arts

Overview: Non-fiction books: Non-fiction books are based facts, real events or real people. Today we are going to complete our nonfiction book study on the topic of butterflies.

Things to know:

1. Sit with mom, dad, grandparent or guardian, or your brother or sister to practice the activities for the day.
2. If you do not have the supplied worksheets or access to any of the worksheets, it is fine to create your own based off the supplied worksheets.
3. This week's lesson for reading and writing, will be on a non-fiction book. The book will be about butterflies.
4. Today will are going to complete a worksheet all about the life cycle of a butterfly.

Explanation: You will recall all of the facts about butterflies that you learned this week. You will listen to a fun story with music all about butterflies.

	Resources
1. Lesson Wrap up	So, this week we learned the difference between fiction and nonfiction stories/books. We listened or read a nonfiction book about butterflies. We wrote words that begin with the letter b. We also learned how to organize our writing thoughts on a graphic organizer called 4-square. Do you remember all this that we learned this week?

2. Listen to this book called Waiting for Wings, from the attached book link.	Listen to this book called, Waiting for Wings. It is a fun story about butterflies set to music. https://bookflix.digital.scholastic.com/pair/detail/bk0072pr/story?authCtx=U.642726498 The link is bookflix Username: Learning20 Password: Clifford
3. Do:	1- Take a trip to Butterfly World in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The video is able 16 minutes long. It starts with butterflies and then you visit a bird room and bug room! It looks like a beautiful place to visit. Enjoy your trip to Butterfly World in Florida! https://safeYouTube.net/w/QAT9 2- Next complete the Life Cycle of a Butterfly worksheet. *If this pdf does not open for you, please look at the one I sent to your email. Thanks.  Life Cycle of a butterfly sheet.pdf Here is the worksheet. It was also emailed to your parents this morning. Remember, you do not have to print it out, just look at it and write/draw your answers on any paper you have at home.
4. Writing: Complete 4-square writing assignment	For writing today, we are going to look at the 4 stages of a butterfly. This worksheet was emailed to your parents this morning. You can print it out or just use a plain piece of paper to draw the stages. Color the pictures, cut and glue the stages in the correct circle, based upon what you learned in our two books this week.
5. Extra Practice:	1- Do you have any books at home with butterflies in them? If so, you can read or have mom or dad read the book to you.

Writing and Reading	2- You could draw a butterfly using chalk or crayons. What color will you make it?
6. How is this assignment turned into the teacher?	Please take a picture of your Life Cycle of a Butterfly worksheet and email it to your teacher. Thank you. We can also “conference” about your work if you are having difficulty during my “office hours”. Thank you
7. Independent Reading	Remember to independently read today. You could choose a book you know how to read all by yourself, curl up in a comfy place in your house and read to a favorite stuffed friend. If you chose a more difficult book, maybe you could read with an older brother/sister or mom/dad. Happy Reading!
