

Directions: Read each statement carefully. In the space provided, mark an "A" if you agree with the statement or mark a "D" if you disagree with the statement. Write down any examples from your life or other experiences that you could share to support your answers.

- _____ 1. Life is harder for any child in a family who is not the oldest child.
- _____ 2. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.
- _____ 3. It is better to confront someone about an issue instead of avoiding the issue and the person.
- _____ 4. Parents should be very involved in their children's lives.
- _____ 5. Friends should always stick up for each other, no matter what the situation.
- _____ 6. Economic differences between friends cause problems; people from different economic backgrounds cannot be friends.
- _____ 7. Popular people can get away with more than less popular people.
- _____ 8. Fears should be faced and overcome instead of always lived with.
- _____ 9. It is important to feel needed and accepted within families and school environments.
- _____ 10. Honesty is essential for maintaining good relationships.