

Global Relations Core 2 Exit Performance Rubric

4 = EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS					3 = MEETS EXPECTATIONS					2 = APPROACHES EXPECTATIONS					1 = DOES NOT MEET EXPECTATIONS
COMMUNICATOR: EFFECTIVE PRESENTER					4	3	2	1	PROBLEM SOLVER: UNDERSTANDS THE PROBLEM					4	3	2	1
Presentation's introduction uses techniques to engage audience.									Defines and explains the problem and its root causes.
Presentation moves in a clear, easy to follow progression from an introduction to supporting details to a conclusion, with smooth transitions.									Presents pertinent evidence that there is a problem.
Presentation emphasizes key ideas/information that is accurate, relevant, and important.									Demonstrates an understanding of background issues involved in the problem.
Student voices are consistently audible and clear; delivery is not too rushed and is without interruptions/hesitations, with minimal use of filler words (e.g. "um," "you know," "like...").									Explains why they prioritized solving this problem (over the other MDGs/targets) in order to accelerate their nation's development and growth.
Each member of the group plays an important role.									PROBLEM SOLVER: DEVELOPS FEASIBLE SOLUTION					4	3	2	1
Presenters make frequent eye contact (e.g., if notes are used they are only glanced at).									States a solution (set of policies) that directly addresses the problem.
Presenters have appropriate body posture, movement, use of gestures, and attire.									Solution to the problem is realistic and if implemented, effective.
Presentation media adds considerably to the presentation, includes features that enhance key points (e.g., use of graphics, color, sound, images), and is professionally produced.									Solution to the problem attempts to address the issue over both the short- and long-term.
The conclusion leaves audience with a clear message and/or strong impression.									Solution to the problem can positively impact related development issues the country faces.
When questions are asked of the presenters, responses are to the point of the question (e.g. not too brief or long, or off topic) and enhance audience's understanding of the problem/solution.									Supports the policy solution with reasoning and important evidence.
EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATOR AVERAGE SCORE									Identifies and explains advantages and disadvantages of the proposed policy solution.
Country:									Outlines a process for getting their plan enacted by prioritizing the necessary action(s) that the government, outside agencies, UN, etc. should take (explained in Project Brief).
Group Members:									PRACTICAL PROBLEM SOLVER AVERAGE SCORE										