

Enduring Understanding: In order to build an Internal Empire, America had to resolve the Indian problem, which was achieved after a great struggle.

Essential Question: What significant events are associated with the final struggle in the great Clash of Cultures?

The Clash of Cultures moves West.

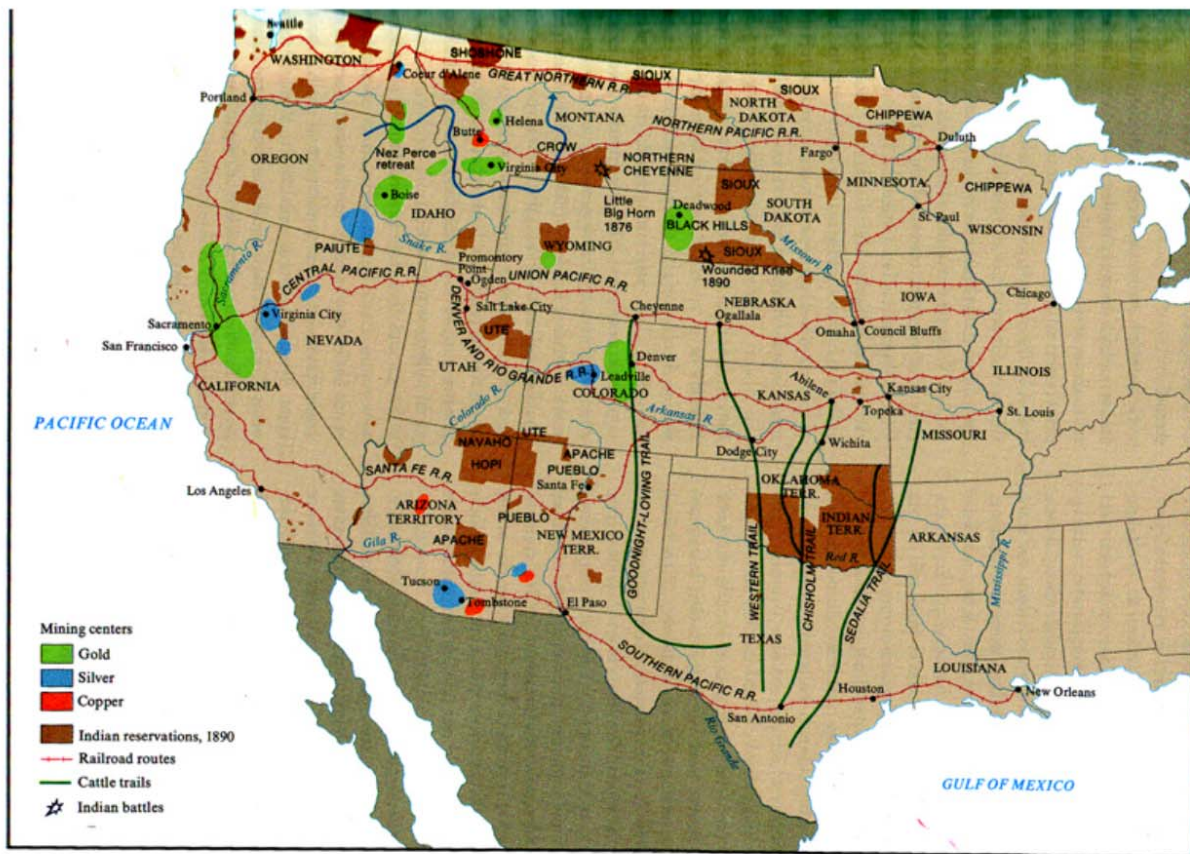

A. Farmland

B. Gold and Silver

C. Moo cows

What once we said was yours, we now need.

Bureau of Indian Affairs - organizes the Reservation Policy.

The American West, 1860-1890

THE PLAN:

- 1. Break up Tribal landholdings.
- 2. "Every Buffalo dead is an Indian gone."
- 3. Expand RR network and "flourish."
- 4. Remove, Relocate, and Refurbish their lives.

THE RESPONSE from the TRIBES:
"Fight or Die."

PICTOGRAPHS:

You will create a pictograph that tells the complete story of the Indian peoples under siege as America resolves the "Indian Problem."

STEPS:

- 1. Review the story and record 8 significant events associated with it.
- 2. Place the events in a sequential order.
- 3. Tell the story of this event with a sequence of pictures.