A HOUSE DIVIDED STUDENT ACTIVITY WORKSHEET THE CASE: Residence for Life, Ltd., a large mortgage company, suspects one of its loan officers is preparing froudulent loan applications and pocketing the money. They are not sure which officer is involved although they believe they have narrowed it above to three individuosis. Cameron Robinson, Luis Rothstein, and Armanda Remillara. However, the cupit learned of the company's suspicious and streeded the evidence. I Your lab has been asked to assist in reconstructing the evidence and determine which of the three suspects is guilty of the fraud. PART ONE: RECONSTRUCT THE EVIDENCE You will be provided with a bag of evidence containing one streeded document recovered from the offices of Residence for Life. You will need to carefully reconstruct the evidence so it can be analyzed. Use scotch tape to preserve the evidence so it can be presented in court. Once your document has been restored, answer the tollowing questions: 1. What type of document is it? 2. Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document? 3. Does this document incriminate a suspect in any way? Which one? How?	Name:	Date:
THE CASE: Residence for Life, Ltd., a large mortgage company, suspects one of its loan officers is preparing fraudulent loan applications and pocketing the money. They are not sure which officer is involved although they believe they have narrowed it down to three individuals: Cameron Robinson, Luis Rothstein, and Amanda Remillard. However, the culpit learned of the company's suspicions and streaded the evidence! Your lab has been asked to assist in reconstructing the evidence and determine which of the three suspects is guilty of the fraud. PART ONE: RECONSTRUCT THE EVIDENCE You will be provided with a bag of evidence containing one shredded document recovered from the offices of Residence for Life. You will need to carefully reconstruct the evidence so it can be analyzed. Use scotch tape to preserve the evidence so it can be presented in court. Once your document has been restored, answer the following questions: 1. What type of document is it? 2. Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document?
THE CASE: Residence for Life, Ltd., a large mortgage company, suspects one of its loan officers is preparing fraudulent loan applications and pocketing the money. They are not sure which officer is involved although they believe they have narrowed it down to three individuals: Cameron Robinson, Luis Rothstein, and Amanda Remillard. However, the culpit learned of the company's suspicions and streaded the evidence! Your lab has been asked to assist in reconstructing the evidence and determine which of the three suspects is guilty of the fraud. PART ONE: RECONSTRUCT THE EVIDENCE You will be provided with a bag of evidence containing one shredded document recovered from the offices of Residence for Life. You will need to carefully reconstruct the evidence so it can be analyzed. Use scotch tape to preserve the evidence so it can be presented in court. Once your document has been restored, answer the following questions: 1. What type of document is it? 2. Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document?		A HOUSE DIVIDED
Residence for Life, Ltd., a large mortgage company, suspects one of its loan officers is preparing fraudulent loan applications and pocketing the money. They are not sure which officer is involved although they believe they have narrowed it down to three individuals: Cameron Robinson, Luis Rothstein, and Amanda Remillard. However, the culprit learned of the company's suspicions and shredded the evidence! You lab has been asked to assist in reconstructing the evidence and determine which of the three suspects is guilty of the fraud. PART DNE: RECONSTRUCT THE EVIDENCE You will be provided with a bag of evidence containing one shredded document recovered from the offices of Residence for Life. You will need to carefully reconstruct the evidence so it can be analyzed. Use scotch tape to preserve the evidence so it can be presented in court. Once your document has been restored, answer the following questions: 1. What type of document is it? Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document?
applications and pocketing the money. They are not sure which officer is involved although they believe they have narrowed it down to three individuals: Cameron Robinson, Luis Rothstein, and Amanda Remillard. However, the culpitil learned of the company's suspicions and shredded the evidence! Your lab has been asked to assist in reconstructing the evidence and determine which of the three suspects is guilty of the fraud. PART ONE: RECONSTRUCT THE EVIDENCE You will be provided with a bag of evidence containing one shredded document recovered from the offices of Residence for Life. You will need to carefully reconstruct the evidence so it can be analyzed. Use scotch tape to preserve the evidence so it can be presented in court. Once your document has been restored, answer the following questions: 1. What type of document is it? 2. Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document?	THE	CASE:
You will be provided with a bag of evidence containing one shredded document recovered from the offices of Residence for Life. You will need to carefully reconstruct the evidence so it can be analyzed. Use scotch tape to preserve the evidence so it can be presented in court. Once your document has been restored, answer the following questions: 1. What type of document is it? 2. Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document?	applic have the cu	cations and pocketing the money. They are not sure which officer is involved although they believe they narrowed it down to three individuals: Cameron Robinson, Luis Rothstein, and Amanda Remillard. However, ulprit learned of the company's suspicions and shredded the evidence! Your lab has been asked to assist in Residence for Life. You will need to carefully reconstruct the evidence so it can be analyzed. Use scotch tape to preserve the evidence so it can be presented in court. Once your document has been restored, answer the following questions: 1. What type of document is it? 2. Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document?	PAR	RT ONE: RECONSTRUCT THE EVIDENCE
2. Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document?	Reside to pre	ence for Life. You will need to carefully reconstruct the evidence so it can be analyzed. Use scotch tape eserve the evidence so it can be presented in court. Once your document has been restored, answer the
	1.	What type of document is it?
3. Does this document incriminate a suspect in any way? Which one? How?	2.	Do any of the suspects' names appear on this document?
3. Does this document incriminate a suspect in any way? Which one? How?
3. Does this document incriminate a suspect in any way? Which one? How?
	3.	Does this document incriminate a suspect in any way? Which one? How?

Name:	Date:
	A HOUSE DIVIDED STUDENT ACTIVITY WORKSHEET
THE	E CASE:
applion have the c	ence for Life, Ltd., a large mortgage company, suspects one of its loan officers is preparing fraudulent loan cations and pocketing the money. They are not sure which officer is involved although they believe they narrowed it down to three individuals: Cameron Robinson, Luis Rothstein, and Amanda Remillard. However, ulprit learned of the company's suspicions and shredded the evidence! Your lab has been asked to assist in instructing the evidence and determine which of the three suspects is guilty of the fraud.
PAF	RT TWO: THE BIG PICTURE
	e all the documents have been recreated, they need to studied for clues. Examine all the documents vered from the mortgage company for evidence and to determine the identity of the fraudulent loan officer.
1.	Which document(s) seem particularly suspicious or incriminating?
2.	Do any names appear on more than one document?
3.	Who do you think is the culprit? Why?
4.	Explain how the suspect was stealing from the mortgage company.