

Investigating the Criminal Mind

Examination of _____ evidence → helps determine the _____, _____, and _____ of crime Forensic _____ → help determine the _____ Clinical vs. Forensic Psychiatry

	Clinical	Forensic
Goal	_____ patients condition	_____ person's _____
Relationship	_____	_____
Dialogue	_____	Can include attempts at _____ and _____ _____ of forensic psychiatrist _____ include:

- Assess the role of _____ and _____ in a defendant's _____
- Determine _____ to stand trial
- Assess a subject's understanding of _____ and _____
- Offer a judgment regarding the suspect's state of mind _____
- Create a psychological _____ of the _____ of individual who _____ committed the crime

Techniques of _____ of suspects:

- 1st: _____ or physical exam—can reveal _____ _____ that may _____ thinking or understanding
- 2nd: _____ the mind—_____ categories
 - P _____ inventories: assess subject's _____ personality _____; highly _____ and _____
 - P _____ testing—evaluate person's _____ processes;
less _____ and more _____ but may help uncover _____ and fantasies that _____ crime
(ex. _____ exam)
 - C _____ testing—assess subject's _____ and ability to understand his or her own behavior (ex. _____)
- 3rd: _____ the subject—investigate areas of _____ from _____ tests
Questioning starts out _____ gradually becomes more _____ Focus is to uncover _____

Be cautious of _____ and _____ confessions * _____ techniques= _____ and "truth serum"

Serial Offenders

List common crimes:

List possible motives for such crimes:

How do serial killers differ?

Definition/characteristics of serial killing:

- Suspect kills _____ one person at different _____ and _____ with _____ periods between the killings.
- Most often _____ on _____
- Motives are _____ and personal (not obvious)
- " _____ " plays large role

Criminal Profiling

P _____: the profile may _____ lead to an _____ individual, but may help _____ the _____ of the investigation

R _____ behind profiling: _____

Descriptors used in profiling:

Sex
Race

Proximity
Social skills

L _____ Criminals

V _____ Criminal A _____ Program (_____) and PROFILER=

FBI _____ to help match _____ offenders with _____ and profiles