

Parliament Won Political Power

Oliver Cromwell ruled as "Lord Protector" from 1653 to 1658

When Cromwell dies in 1658, his son Richard, will briefly hold the title of Lord Protector but....

Disappointed with the status quo, an army general, George Monck, recalls Parliament in 1659.
Parliament votes to....

In May of 1660, Charles II, eldest son of Charles I, returned to London to restore the monarchy.

He ruled from:
Time period known as..
Characterized as...

Drama

Subject matter:

Changes in theater:

Religious Question

What Charles wants:

What Parliament grants:

Habeas Corpus

Parliament passes a law that states...

Long Term Effects:

Problems Faced by Charles II

Lack of money, lack of an heir, and religion are all connected in Charles II problems because...

Development of Political Parties arose from the debate in Parliament over whether James, Charles II brother, would succeed to the throne.

Whigs

Supported:

Tories

Supported:

Long Term Effect:

When Charles II dies in 1685, James II does succeed to the throne.

He angered Parliament by...

James II's 3 Alarming Events
These excited the fears of Protestants

1.

2.

3.

Both Whigs and Tories do not want to see a long line of Catholic kings so they establish a plan....

Plan:

Key players:

1688- Bloodless or Glorious Revolution

Who lead it:

What happened:

In 1689, Parliament asks William and Mary to rule England as joint sovereigns.

Parliament clarifies their dominance in leading England by passing the Bill of Rights in 1689.

It stated that a ruler could not...