

1. After hearing all of this evidence, the jury is left along, doing what to make a decision?

 Trapped in the wilderness for a week with very little water and food, what word describes how that person will look when rescued?

3. When you have done something wrong and you are caught, you try to dodge questions...you are being _____.

4. News channels make a big deal out of celebrities who are charged with crimes...what do you call the official charge against the accused?

→ What is the piece of paper that allows law officials to arrest the accused?

5. This is what you do with/to your parents when they say you can't go out Friday night but you really want to.

6. Movies like Remember the Titans, The Blind Side, and Eddie the Eagle all include people who overcame difficulties. What word captures what they were able to do?

 The student is stumped over the last question on a test. He thinks and thinks, and then finally remembers the answer. He has had a _____.

8. Your friend is not allowed out on school nights, has to be home by 9:30 on weekends, and isn't allowed to text. What word describes the kind of home in which he lives?

9. Some teachers don't allow cell phones in class ever. To try to sneak in some texting, what do students then sometimes do with their phones so they won't get caught using them?

10. Your brother said you were NOT allowed to borrow his car while he is away. You take it anyway and total it. What word describes your brother as he screams at you and demands that you pay for all the damages?

11. Your classmate drops a $20 bill on the ground and doesn't seem to notice. You think about pocketing the cash for yourself, but then you _____; that wouldn't be the right thing to do.

