

Reading Response Bingo

Name:

Date:

What did the main character(s) learn?	What do you predict will happen next in the story? Why?	What was your favorite part of this chapter? Why?	Choose one character and describe him/her.	How do you feel about this chapter? Why?
What part would you change in this chapter? Why?	Summarize what you read today.	Explain the most important event in this chapter.	If you were the author, what would you change about this chapter?	Describe the theme of this chapter. Use text evidence to support your answer.
What is the problem in this chapter? How would you solve it?	Identify five words that were unfamiliar to you. Explain what each of the words mean.	Use your five new words in sentences.	Create five questions to ask the author about this chapter.	Write the events in this chapter in chronological order.
What was the author's purpose for this chapter?	Create a five-question quiz for this chapter and the answer key.	Draw a scene of this chapter and label parts of the illustration.	Write a 1-paragraph summary of this chapter.	Rewrite a scene in the book and explain why you would like to see it written that way.
Once you finish the book, write a review of the book.	Post a review of this chapter on Seesaw.	Identify the problem in this chapter. What was the solution?	Explain why you chose to read this book. How does it compare to your expectation so far?	Who would you recommend this book to? Who would you not recommend it to? Why?
Compare this book to another book you have read. Explain the similarities and differences.	Identify figurative language in the chapter. Explain why the author used that language.	Explain the text structure in the chapter or the book. Explain why the author used that structure.	Explain the author's point of view. What does the author want you to feel, think, or believe?	Free! Choose your own response.