

Ingenious Introductions

Sentence #1: THE HOOK

- lively description
- incident using emotions
- interesting or unusual fact

Imagine sleeping late on Friday mornings, never having to worry about catching the big, metal bus.

Sentence #2: THE CONNECTING SENTENCE

Having Friday off would be an excellent improvement to our school schedule.

Sentence #3: THE THESIS

To better understand _____, one must learn about _____, _____, and _____.

To better understand why we should have Fridays off, one must learn about the power of relaxation, the importance of socialization, and family relationships.

Sentence #4 and #5: WHY SHOULD THE READER READ YOUR PAPER

You may NOT say the following: ~~You should read my paper because...~~

Learning about the importance of four day weeks will surely make you happier to go to school. No one will be able to argue against the benefits of this plan.

Sentence #1: THE HOOK

- lively description
- incident using emotions
- interesting or unusual fact

---

---

---

Sentence #2: THE CONNECTING SENTENCE

---

---

---

Sentence #3: THE THESIS

To better understand _____, one must learn about _____, _____, and _____.

*To better understand _____,
one must learn about _____,
_____, and _____.*

Sentence #4 and #5: WHY SHOULD THE READER READ YOUR PAPER

You may NOT say the following: ~~You should read my paper because...~~

---

---

---

---

---