

Name _____

Instructions: In the boxes on the left, write the main idea of three different sections in the book. In the boxes on the right, list three details from each section. Look back in the book for reference.

Main idea

Details

1.

2.

3.

Main idea

Details

1.

2.

3.

Main idea

Details

1.

2.

3.

Name _____

Instructions: Place commas after each introductory word or phrase in the sentences below.

1. Today people celebrate April Fools' Day differently around the world.
2. On April 1 some people send a friend on a foolish errand.
3. In France the April 1 tradition is often known as "April Fish."
4. In 1957 in the United Kingdom a BBC TV documentary informed viewers about a Swiss spaghetti tree.
5. After the program was broadcast hundred of viewers called the BBC asking how to grow their own spaghetti trees.
6. In 1998 Burger King published a full-page ad for a new left-handed burger.
7. Finally remember that what goes around comes around . . . worse.

Name _____

Instructions: Write the words in alphabetical order on the lines provided.

traditional disguises naïve People consumer pranks media customers

1. _____

5. _____

2. _____

6. _____

3. _____

7. _____

4. _____

8. _____

