

Games and Activities for Speech and Language Skills

Games are a great way to work on articulation, vocabulary, grammar, fluency and social language skills!

- GO-together matching games
- Headbanz
- Memory games
- Show and Tell- Mystery item
  - Hide and object and have him guess it based on clues
  - Have him describe the item and have you guess it
- I Spy (in the car, house, wherever!)
  - I spy something that is green, tall and grows outside
- Blurt
- Scattegories
- Say The word
- Spot It
- Apples to Apples Junior
- Guess Who
- Zingo
- 5 second rule Junior
- Outburst
- What's up (app on phone) Kid friendly topics
- Simon Says
  - Work on following directions with linguistic concepts
    - Simon says, touch your nose and then touch the table
    - Simin says, touch the chair before you touch your nose
- Baking/Cooking
  - Talk about the ingredients, steps to make it- so much vocabulary involved!
  - Work on Frist, Next, Then, Last
  - Making a PB&J sandwich – describe all of the steps
- PLAY!!!!
  - Add in vocabulary
  - Work on following directions
  - Work on making sentences