Student Responsibilities:

Students should respect all members of the school community, comply with school norms, and seek to understand and comply with all expectations. They should also take responsibility for their actions, admit mistakes, and strive for growth and success. Students should report any concerns to a Groveland Elementary School Home and School Association's 6th Grade Club volunteer and ask for help when needed.

Disciplinary Responses:

Should a student not comply with the rules and expectations for these events, their parent and/or guardian will be contacted to remove them from the current event and their ability to participate in future events can be revoked. If a student violates any rules at an event, to be able to participate in future events they must be accompanied by their parent/guardian. A refund of any kind will not be honored if a student is asked to leave an event due to violating our rules.

I give parental/guardian consent to the above registered minor participant to participate in the Groveland Elementary School Home and School Association's 6th Grade Club and I agree to abide in full to the above waiver.
