

Unami Clubs

Students for Pets Mrs. Frederick

Meets first and third Wednesday of the Month in room 108 from 2:30-3:15pm.

A service club dedicated to raising aware for shelter animals, and providing donations to causes that will profit these animals.

Opus Magazine Mrs. O'Connor

The club meets every other Wednesday from 2:30 to 4:00 p.m. to vote on submissions and work on writing and art.

Opus is Unami's art and literary magazine. We publish online several times a year and accept submissions on a rolling basis.

Yearbook Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. Keller and Ms. Zerby

The club meets once a month after school, but students may be assigned to take pictures during the school day or at after school functions.

Students take pictures and determine the theme of Unami's yearbook, The Arrowhead. Students must apply for a position in September.

Blend Club Mr. Murtha

This club meets every Tuesday during lunch.

Blend Club is for students interested in celebrating diversity at Unami and in greater society. The club promotes cultural proficiency (awareness towards acceptance) of all ethnicities, religions, races, and sexual orientations, as well as celebrates cultural customs from each group that enrich our society as a whole. If you would like to be a part of promoting cultural proficiency and planning cultural education events for Unami, please join us at Blend Club!

Unami Trowel and Plow Dr. Massey

This club meets after school weekly in season.

A community of students, families, teachers, and non-educator volunteers who are committed to raising vitamin rich and nutritious produce, and donating it to local food pantries. Watch the announcement scroll for meeting dates.

Origami Club

Mr. Pagano

This club meets after school every other week.

The Origami club allows students to get together to make and share their origami creations. We meet in room 325. Watch the announcement scroll for meeting dates.

Unami Times

Mrs. Christein

The club meets five times a school year—once for each of the five issues we publish each year—from 2:30-3:30 in Room 109.

The Unami Times school newspaper is created and edited by Unami students. Student journalists write about issues that matter in our school community and beyond. The editorial staff consists of veteran members who run the everyday requirements of the paper. Student journalists work on their own time to interview sources, take photographs, and write their articles. A staff OneNote is where important information is disseminated and where students sign-up for and then post their articles. Please reach out to Mrs. Christein if you are interested in becoming involved (kchristein@cbsd.org).

French Club

Ms. Castagnet

See announcements for upcoming meetings.

The French Club at Unami Middle School welcomes anyone interested in the French culture (food, fashion, history, movies, literature and others).

The French Club goal is to know more about the French and francophone culture and share experience as well as doing activities around the school. The French Club main events this school years are : Bake Sale (come and try American and French pastries , profits will be donated to Hurricane Harvey funds, The French Giving : Students will gather in the cafeteria to share a meal with French food and francophone, the Fashion show was very popular last year so we will try to make it as memorable and our new cabinet members have ideas for example : secret Santa, Valentine day etc.)

Music Enrichment Club

Mr. Myers

After School Mondays 2:30-4:00.

Mr. Myers Instrumental Music Enrichment Club offers weekly clinics and sectionals on various instruments to help provide students more individual and/or small group instruction on their instrument. In addition to our clinics our Jazz Lab group has been formed from members of our music enrichment club and helps students master small group jazz performance techniques and introduces them to the art of solo and improvisation! Please check Mr. Myers teacher website for our most current clinic.
