

CENTRAL BUCKS SOUTH NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

CHARACTER ESSAY

An otherwise eligible student who has a record of cheating, plagiarism, intentional dishonesty, or a violation of school rules or civil offenses in the community within 12 months prior to the application due date will not be considered for NHS membership.

This character essay applies to you if you have had a character violation while at CB South.

You must submit the two items listed below in addition to the regular application packet. Selection is at the discretion of the CB South Faculty Selection Council.

1. Please attach to this sheet a letter to the NHS Faculty Selection Council explaining what you learned as a result of your discipline infraction and how you grew as a person of good character since the incident.
2. Please include the name below of a CB South teacher who has taught you since your violation and whom we may contact as a character reference.
