BCSO Youth Concerto Competition Winner

Elijah Song, cellist

Elijah Song is an 8th grade student at Tamanend Middle School, playing cello in the school's String Ensemble and piano in the Swing Ensemble. He participates in the Chess Club, UNICEF Club, STEM Club, and Reading Olympics.

Elijah currently studies under the guidance of Priscilla Lee, Associate Principal of the Philadelphia Orchestra. He has been selected as a 1st or 2nd place winner at numerous competitions on both cello and piano.

Elijah has been an active member of the Grace Chamber Music Youth Club, dedicated to raising awareness about disabilities and raising money for that worthy cause, and has had the honor of performing several times at the Special Olympics Montgomery County Fundraising Concert.

In his free time, Elijah enjoys tennis, soccer, and Lego building.
