Community

The Central Bucks School District (CBSD) is located 25 miles north of Philadelphia in Bucks County. It is comprised of nine municipalities with the borough of Doylestown being the largest population center. District enrollment for the 2023-2024 school year is just over 17,000 students. The district has fifteen elementary schools, five middle schools, and three senior high schools.

Central Bucks High School East is a three-year comprehensive high school with an approximate enrollment of 1,340 students. Students may also attend a vocational-technical institute operated in cooperation with four other school districts. Central Bucks High School East is accredited by the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges and the Pennsylvania Department of Education. The professional staff numbers 103 including a psychologist, nurse, six counselors, one social worker, and four administrators.

Curriculum, Grades, & Ranking

Central Bucks High School East operates under a block-scheduling model. There are four instructional periods per day. Classes are generally classified into one of the following areas: Advanced Placement, Honors, Academic, or Special Education.

CBSD does not rank. Grading is on a 4.0 scale. AP courses are weighted by 1.0 (ex: an A is 5.0), and Honors courses are weighted by .25 (ex: an A is 4.25). Ninth grade students, housed in the middle schools, may take weighted honors courses, but do not have access to AP courses. Career & Technology Education is offered at Middle Bucks Institute of Technology (MBIT), with programs including 10 career clusters and 21 career pathways.
