

Financial Aid Assistance Webinars – March

Presented by PHEAA: Borrowing for Education – Which Loan Should I Pick?

As families receive their financial offer letters from schools and determine that education loans may be needed, they'll find that there are many options to consider - including loans from the Dept of Education and private loan programs. Doing the research and knowing what to compare and consider will be important to overall education debt, keeping it affordable, and finding the right fit. Join Daniel Wray and Linda Pacewicz of PHEAA PA Forward in a 1 hour webinar review of the different options and details associated with education loans to assist in sorting out this information.
