DIRECTOR'S NOTE

We are all familiar with the story of Cinderella. whether we read the original fairytale, saw Rodgers and Hammerstein's original 1957 television version starring Julie Andrews, or experienced any of the numerous adaptations since by Disney and others. What makes Rodgers and Hammerstein's 2013 Broadway version of Cinderella with libretto by Douglas Carter Beane so special is that it brings this enchanting musical of hope and transformation to life with humor, purpose and empowerment. Complete with a songbook of some of Rodgers and Hammerstein's most memorable songs, it is a story for the dreamer in all of us.

It took a village of about one hundred people to bring this show to fruition. With dedicated leadership from the creative team and tireless effort by dozens of parents, volunteers and students alike over many weeks, we have slowly watched this grand vision take form. I am immensely grateful for all their support and passion for this production and the performing arts program this year as a whole.

We have pulled out all the stops to honor this timeless love story and bring its magic to life. From projections to robotics, inspired sets/scenic design to gorgeous costumes. Together with this talented cast, crew, orchestra and production team, we hope to transport you all to a fairytale land where magic really does exist and with just a little courage and kindness, anything is possible!

PRODUCTION TEAM BIOS

AL PIECHOTTA

SET DESIGNER/PROJECTIONS

Cinderella marks Mr. P's fifth production at CB West and is one of his favorites. This show provides a unique opportunity to showcase a blend of technical effects and classic stage magic, bringing this timeless story to life for a modern audience.

The set design incorporates a diverse mix of media, including papier-mâché, traditional set pieces, scenic painting, projections, lighting, and even robotics. This ambitious vision was brought to life through the dedication and talent of students from the Harlequin Club and the Technology Student Association Club (TSA) here at CB West who contributed their creativity and craftsmanship to the production.

A heartfelt thank you to the incredible build team, whose hard work and expertise made this production possible. Special appreciation goes to Jamie Ivers and Chad Kulp, without whom these sets would not have come to life.

STU KESILMAN

SCENIC ART

Stu Kesilman has greatly enjoyed working with the cast, crew, parents, and production team to help create the sets for Cinderella, and thanks everyone who helped paint – especially Head-of-Art Crew Kailyn Angelitis, daughters Kate and Anna Kesilman, and students from the National Art Honor Society! He also appreciates Claudine and Albert Piechotta envisioning the main direction for the sets that sent us on our way. Stu has coordinated set painting for over 30 Central Bucks school shows at CB South, Unami, Tohickon, and now West, in addition to a dozen shows outside of CB. He loves the collaborative efforts that make things come together and is proud of what we accomplished for this show. Break a leg, Harlequin Club!

SENIOR SEND-OFF

To this incredibly talented and extremely hard-working senior class. You are testament to what young people can accomplish when given an opportunity and a runway. From conceiving of and managing events, to creating original artwork and designs, to running crews and tech like a well-oiled machine, to pulling out performances that rival professionals-you are amazing!

You have given your blood, sweat and tears (literally) to this program and everyone who follows in your footsteps owes you a debt of gratitude for the well paved road you all helped forge. Your stalwartness, perseverance and grounding gave this club purpose and direction during a challenging transition. I am so incredibly proud of the care, support and ingenuity you have all brought to this table as we worked together to navigate this club into a new era.

I hope you will always keep the Harlequin Club in your hearts as you journey on as it will always have a special place for all of you. To quote Josh Groban "always hire a theatre kid" -if this group isn't indicative of that I don't know who is. We will all be rooting for you and the backstage door will always be left open.

My love and admiration!
