Anything Goes has a long history on Broadway, first opening in 1934, starring Ethel Merman, followed by revivals in 1987, starring Patti LuPone, and in 2011, starring Sutton Foster. Centered around the songs of Cole Porter, it is the classic golden age musical story of finding the happily-ever-after through a series of antics, mishaps, and comedic happenstance. The book of Anything Goes is based on the true life of a Broadway producer, who happened to live on a cruise ship in the 1930s where he enjoyed his lavish lifestyle free of the burden of income taxes. The opulent setting of the cruise ship provides the perfect playground for all kinds of fun, romance, and schemes, really anything a writer could think of. In fact, the show got its name after one producer of the show, in a particularly frustrating production meeting, threw up his hands and said, "from now on with this show, anything goes."

This production is quite different from the last two we've presented at CB West. It is a feel-good, song-and-dance, musical extravaganza, one that provides a lovely escape for two and a half hours. These musicals are important, too. They don't so much hold a mirror up to society as they give us the opportunity to laugh at the absurdity of human nature and get caught up in a simpler, happily-ever-after version of our world. Anything Goes embraces all the romance, humor, beauty, and dreaminess of an old Hollywood musical, and we have had a blast putting it together.

To say I adore the students of the Harlequin Club is an understatement. To watch them fully commit to a show like Rent and then turn around and do the same with Anything Goes is mind-blowing. They were so powerful as an ensemble in Rent that I almost forgot how talented they are as comedic actors and dancers as well. I am delighted by how much they embrace the old classics as much as dramatic, contemporary works and I know they will easily win the hearts of the audiences again.

It's been a de-lovely time with the Harlequin Club once again. Endless thanks to my creative team: Phoenix, Cheri, Sonja, Ava, Suzanne, and Sharon. Your collaboration, creativity, and camaraderie make every show such a pleasure. Thanks to my incredible student officers: Anna Shea, Garrett, Griffan, Ella, Gia, Jackson, Anna, Evan, Katie, Molly, Leo, and Sammy, for your maturity (most of the time), humor (whether I want it or not), and never-ending positivity (you are my hope for the future). I hope you all know just how impressed I am by your work ethic and individual contributions to this show and everything this club accomplished this year. A huge special thank you to Sammy Herb, our incredible student production stage manager, who takes on running the entire show (calling hundreds of cues each performance), on top of designing and painting much of the set. And they do this with a smile on their face, and a simple "it's fun" as a response to the endless accolades they deserve.

The cast, crew, and creative team hope you leave this performance with a smile on your face and a warm feeling in your heart. It's a simple wish, but the power of joy and hopefulness is infectious, and we hope to give that to you with this performance of Anything Goes.

~Jessica Bostock, Director/Choreographer

SENIORS

Riley Malone, Pearce Mensching, Ryan O'Connor, Garrett Falkenstein, Anna Shea Safran, Anna Polsky, Gia Panno, Samantha Herb

Every year it gets harder and harder to say goodbye to the seniors. This group will always hold a very special place in my heart. From their first show, Pippin, where we managed masks, covid, and an ever-changing schedule, to White Christmas, where they proved they could handle a musical extravaganza with ease, to Amelie, where they impressed not only their own community but the greater theatre community winning several Philadelphia Independence Awards, to Rent, where they showed both incredible talent, but also depth of character and maturity beyond their years. Anything Goes is the icing on the cake for this group who has proven they can perform their best under great stress and have fun together while doing so. Anna Shea, Garrett, Riley, Anna, Sammy, Gia, Pearce, and Ryan ~ you have become some of my favorite people in this beautiful theatre family called the Harlequin Club. Thank you for your leadership, humor, camaraderie, and individuality. You have been a positive, bright shining light through some challenging times and your mark on this club will never fade. I love you all ~ Jessica

Presidents Note

Over the past three years of high school, the Harlequin Club has stayed as a constant bright light in our lives. This club represents kindness, love, and support, and to come to a place like that where you know everyone is rooting for you and is on your side is beautiful. This club has brought us and so many others many new relationships that will stick around for forever. We are so proud of each and every one of you for working hard to make this show incredible! It sure isn't easy to put a show on like this in just a couple months, but look at us, we did it!!!! Woohoo!!! So, thank you to all you lovely members of the club for being you and for being awesome! But of course, it would not be possible without our fantastic creative team. Thank you so much to Jess, Phoenix, Cheri, Suzanne, Sharon, and everyone else who worked so hard for this show, we really could not do it without you guys! Because of our extraordinary creative team, this club has been able to stay a positive and safe place for everyone which is so valuable in today's world. This group of kids have gone through some tough times together, but through maturity, hugs, and laughter, we have grown stronger and stuck together. The cast of Anything Goes is beyond talented, and we are so grateful to be a part of it with you. When we say we love each one of you, we mean it. The Harlequin Club is not just a club, it's a family, and we couldn't be happier that it has been such a big part of our lives. While we are sad we won't be at West next year, you won't be getting rid of us! We are so excited to see all that you do in the next few years! And we just want to say to all the members of the club, "when other friendships have been forgot, ours will still be hot!!!" Love you all and break a leg!!!
