

Reading Response Journal – Character Traits

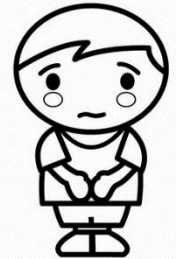

Name: _____

Book Title: _____

This book has _____ pages.

This book was easy just right difficult

Readers understand a character by thinking about what the character says and does.

1. Think about a character in the book you read. Circle a word that describes your character.

character traits

angry	confused	caring	determined	glad	lazy	responsible honest	cooperative	helpful	enthusiastic	creative	confident	hopeful
kind	brave	fair	loyal	strong	cautious	polite
proud	mean	worried	calm	foolish	greedy	shy

2. Follow these steps on the back of this sheet.

- Write a sentence that describes a main character in the book you read. Be sure to name the character,
- Write two sentences explaining story details that helped you decide how to describe your character.

