CENTRAL BUCKS
SCHOOL DISTRICT

Central Bucks School District

Encompassing more than 120 square miles in the heart of beautiful Bucks County, Pennsylvania – the Central Bucks School District (CBSD) is the third largest school district in Pennsylvania. CBSD serves students in grades kindergarten through twelve in nine municipalities: the boroughs of Chalfont, Doylestown and New Britain; and the townships of Buckingham, Doylestown, New Britain, Plumstead, Warrington and Warwick - a population of more than 101,000. More than 3,000 faculty and staff serve more than 17,000 students in 15 elementary (K-6), 5 middle (7-9), and 3 high schools (10-12).

TECHNOLOGY

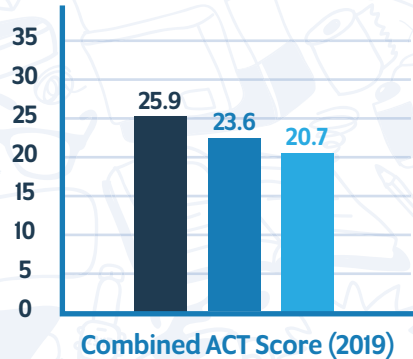

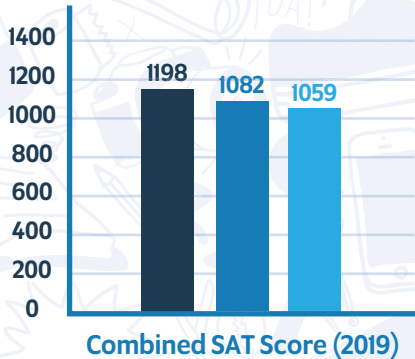

Central Bucks is a 1:1 school district. Each student is provided a personal tablet or laptop to support their learning.

The district utilizes Canvas as our K-12 learning management system. Parents and guardians may monitor student progress within Canvas. Secondary families may also monitor missed and upcoming assignments and students' grades within the parent portal.
