

The “Nature” of Science

By: S9

Observing trees in Mrs. Scala’s science class was exciting.

First, students chose a tree to examine. Our senses were important in gathering information. We touched the bark, smelled the wet, soggy moss, and saw the many colors of the leaves. Finally, the class recorded their findings in a science notebook. Everyone had a fascinating time exploring nature!