Thought:

I'm wondering what makes him think his friends' lives are so much better?

OR: I have a connection to his feelings. Once I thought my friend had it "better than me" because he got to go to Disney Land over the summer. I was pretty jealous.

OR: I think he should think about reasons he is special so he will be proud of himself. Maybe he'll see his life is good the way it is.

OR: I remember reading about another character, called Chrysanthemum, who wished she had a short name like everyone else. Both characters should be happy with who they are, and not try to be like everyone else.
