And perhaps to declare independence Thomas Paine from Great Britain. 4 A letter to my wife Dear Wife, My esteemed colleagues at the Second Continental Congress have asked me to write adeclaration of independence. I'm only 33 years old. Certainly there are men more talented than I. When I've finished my draft, I'll show it to _____ John Adams 3 and Benjamin Frankln, who are also Common Sense members of my committee. We should approve it some time early in the month of July. Written by _____ Thomas Paine Your loving husband, 5 Approving the Declaration of Independence Thomas January 1776 Fellow colonists! You should read this July 4, 1776 booklet because it's common sense that Delegates of the Continental Congress will approve the The Declaration of Independence. On this day we will commit treason, a crime punishable by death. Arrange to quickly send copies of the document to each colonial government and to the Continental army

In the space below, rewrite the five excerpts of the Declaration of Independence in simpler language.
