

Read Sections 3 through 8 in your book. After you read each section, match an illustration from the Student Handout with the historical event described in that section. Then write notes comparing the illustration with the matching historical event.

The Proclamation of 1763 	In Metaphor The parent is concerned about her child's safety. The parent forbids the child to leave the yard.	In History Great Britain is concerned about fighting between American Indians and colonists in the territory west of the Appalachian Mountains. Great Britain orders colonists not to settle west of the Appalachian Mountains.
The Quartering Act 	In Metaphor The parent hires a babysitter to watch the child. The child does not like serving the babysitter.	In History Great Britain leaves soldiers in the American colonies to protect the colonists. The colonists are angry about having to house and supply the British soldiers.
The Stamp Act 	In Metaphor The parent requires the child to pay for telephone use. The child is upset about this new rule.	In History Great Britain passes a law that makes colonists pay a tax on printed items. Colonists protest against taxation without representation.

The Boston Massacre 	In Metaphor The child and the babysitter argue. The child is punished for arguing.	In History Crowds taunt British soldiers and throw snowballs. British soldiers fire into the crowd and kill five people.
The Boston Tea Party 	In Metaphor The child does not like being forced to drink milk. The child pours the milk into the sink.	In History Colonists are upset at being forced to purchase tea from only the British East India Company. Colonists dump tea into Boston Harbor.
The Intolerable Acts 	In Metaphor The parent restricts the child to his bedroom. The child is angry and defiant.	In History Great Britain punishes colonists with several harsh laws, such as the Boston Port Act. The First Continental Congress fights against the Intolerable Acts (or Coercive Acts).