

Reading Response Prompts

Use at least three examples from the text to support your response.

Character <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. What word best describes the character?</li><li>2. Is the main character in the story anything like you?</li><li>3. If you were the main character in the story, what would you do differently?</li><li>4. Choose a character and describe how they have changed throughout the story.</li><li>5. What challenges did one of the characters face?</li></ol>	Setting <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Does the setting of the story remind you of anywhere you have been? Use examples from your life and the book.</li><li>2. What line in the book best describes the setting?</li><li>3. How would the story change if it took place in a different setting?</li><li>4. How is the setting important to the book?</li><li>5. Compare the setting to a setting in another book you have read.</li></ol>
Plot <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Compare the problem in story to a problem you have experienced.</li><li>2. Do you think the title of the book fits the story?</li><li>3. In your own words, summarize the last chapter you read.</li><li>4. What is the main problem in the story?</li><li>5. What clues did the author give you that helped you predict what was going to happen in the story?</li><li>6. What is the climax of the story?</li></ol>	Author <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. What lesson does the author try to teach you?</li><li>2. How does the author create the mood or tone of the book?</li><li>3. What questions do you have unanswered that you would like to ask the author?</li><li>4. What is the author's purpose?</li><li>5. What is the genre of your book?</li></ol>

