ADMINISTRATOR & SUPERVISOR GROUP THEMES
Strengths	Weaknesses
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Supports best practice - longer instructional periods yield academic value for students to more deeply engage in content exploration. Management of Absenteeism and Remediation - resource has value for remediation of students and for those who need to make up tests Rigor – the new schedule contains increased academic rigor and a viable curriculum Teacher Accountability in Use of Time - after school team meeting structure has increased teacher accountability and effectively eliminated misuse of time Transition Benefits for Students – the new schedule provides MS students with greater acclimation to HS schedule and demands 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Limiting for the whole child – there is an inability to deeply explore interests via electives courses Team Planning – the lack of extended team planning time creates inability for teachers to pull in students, cover classes and tie up loose ends (coverage issue should be presently rectified) Technological proficiency and progress – the schedule impedes the acclimation of students' technology skills; additional focus needed in digital citizenship and literacy within that context Meeting the diverse social/emotional needs - lack of flexibility to meet the social & emotional needs of students (offshoot of reduced team meeting time).
