JUDGES

Grades 1-6 Melanie Eyth is a poet and artist living in Bucks County. She coordinates the monthly Poetry Night at The Doylestown Bookshop. She was inspired to ask the bookshop about hosting a poetry contest for the sole purpose of supporting and encouraging local poets. Everybody has a story to tell. Everybody has a voice to be heard. Poets, lift your voices! We want to hear you.

Grades 7-12 Marie Kane's poetry, book reviews, and essays are widely published. In 2012, Table Publishing released her chapbook, Survivors in the Garden, which largely concerns her life with Multiple Sclerosis. Her next book, Beauty, You Drive a Hard Bargain, is due out in the fall of 2017. She taught English and Creative Writing at Central Bucks (PA) School District for twenty-eight years. Her involvement in scholastic writing continues; she is the final judge for both regional and national poetry contests focusing on students. Kane is the 2006 Bucks County (PA) Poet Laureate and the poetry editor for Pentimento magazine. She lives in Yardley, PA with her husband, artist Stephen Millner, and their two rescue cats.

Preliminary Adult Lorraine Henrie Lins is the author of a full-length book of poetry entitled, All the Stars Blown to One Side of The Sky (VAC Poetry) and two chapbooks: I Called It Swimming and Delaying Balance. In 2010, Lins was named the Bucks County Pennsylvania Poet Laureate, and prior, won The Penland Prize for Poetry. Currently, she is serving as Director of New and Emerging Poets with Tekpoet. Lins' poems have appeared in numerous publications, as well as several online journals and collections. Born and raised in the suburbs of Central New Jersey, the self-professed Jersey Girl now resides outside of Philadelphia with her family and several dogs.

Final Adult Ethel Rackin is the author of The Forever Notes (2013) and Go On (2016), a National Jewish Book Award finalist, both from Parlor Press. Her collaborative lyric sequence, "Soledad," written with Elizabeth Savage, won the 2016 Thomas Merton Prize for Poetry of the Sacred. Rackin's work has appeared widely in journals such as The American Poetry Review, Colorado Review, Kenyon Review, and Verse Daily. She earned her MFA from Bard College and her PhD in English Literature from Princeton University. She is currently an associate professor at Bucks County Community College and the Co-Director, with Christopher Bursk, of the Bucks County Poet Laureate Program.
