

Grammaire 1

- -re verbs
- -ger and -cer verbs

Un peu plus

- le with days of the week
- pp. 116–121

Résumé: Grammaire 1

Regular -re verbs follow a fixed pattern.

attendre

j'	attends	nous	attendons
tu	attends	vous	attendez
il/elle/on	attend	ils/elles	attendent

Verbs ending in -ger and -cer have a spelling change in the nous form: nous mangeons and nous commençons. The verb commencer + à + infinitive means to start to do something.

Ma sœur commence à étudier à 6h le soir.

To say that you do something regularly on a certain day of the week, use le before the day of the week.

To say that you are doing something on one particular day of the week, don't use the article in front of the day.

Grammaire 2

- the verbs préférer and acheter
- adjectives as nouns

Un peu plus

- agreement with numbers
- pp. 128–133

Résumé: Grammaire 2

The verbs préférer and acheter have spelling changes in all forms except the nous and vous forms.

Tu préfères nager à la piscine?

You can use colors and other adjectives as nouns to avoid repetition. Use the appropriate article le, la, l', or les in front of the adjective.

J'adore la chemise verte mais j'aime bien la bleue aussi.

Remember these rules with numbers:

- Quatre-vingts and multiples of cent (deux cents) have an -s unless they are followed by another number (deux cent trois).
- The number un changes to une when followed by a feminine noun (trente et une calculatrices).

Lettres et sons

The nasal sound [ã]

This sound is called a nasal because you make it by passing the air through the back of your mouth and nose. The nasal sound [ã] has four possible spellings: an, am, en, and em. These letter combinations don't represent a nasal sound if another vowel follows the n or m, or if the n or m is doubled. You have to learn the pronunciation when you learn the word.

Jeux de langue

Ta tante t'attend.

J'ai tant de tantes. Quelle tante m'attend?

Ta tante Antoinette t'attend.
