

Dear Parent,

Your child is very special! Please use this form to share any important information, special goals, or concerns about your child.

Student: _____

This year, my child and I are looking forward to:

The most important thing about this school year is:

Some things that concern me are:

Academically, I would like my child to:

Socially, my child is:

Additional comments: