

Sentences

Diagramming

Modifiers

Parts of
Speech

Punctuation

Nouns

A noun names a person, place, thing, or idea.

Proper	Common
Margie	girl
Freak the Mighty	book
Buckingham	school

^PRob raked ^Cleaves in the ^Cyard.

We traveled to Florida.

The painting is expensive.

Collective Nouns

~ Names a group of persons, places, animals, or things considered as a unit.

class audience
crowd crew

Concrete Nouns

~ Names something that can be seen or touched.

forest uniform
Miami twins

Abstract Nouns

~ Names something that cannot be seen or touched.

love friendship
culture appreciation

Qualities of Nouns

Number : Singular or Plural

book	books
box	boxes
lily	lilies
calf	calves
tooth	teeth
ox	oxen
deer	deer
crisis	crises
tomato	tomatoes
octopus	octopi

Gender :

Masculine

father
son
prince
waiter
hero

Feminine

mother
daughter
princess
waitress
heroine

Neuter

rock
desk
milk
dictionary
theater

Possessive Nouns

~ Shows possession or ownership.

book of the student:
student's book

books of the students:
students' books

ring belonging to my wife:
my wife's ring

rings belonging to the wives:
our wives' rings

toys of the baby:
the baby's toys

toys belonging to two babies:
the babies' toys