

Affirmative Side

The Federalist Assertion: The Constitution, as it is written, should be ratified (accepted) as the basis of our laws and government.

Reasoning 1:

Evidence

: Example, Story, Statistics

--

--

--

--

The opposing side will likely argue _____ about this point

--

Reasoning 2:

Evidence

: Example, Story, Statistics

--

--

--

--

The opposing side will likely argue _____ about this point

--

Reasoning 3:

Evidence

: Example, Story, Statistics

--

--

--

--

The opposing side will likely argue _____ about this point

--

Negative Side:

The Anti-federalist Assertion: The Constitution, as it is written, should not be ratified. We should uphold the Articles of Confederation instead.

Reasoning 1:

Evidence : Example, Story, Statistics

--

--

--

--

The opposing side will likely argue _____ about this point

--

Reasoning 2:

Evidence : Example, Story, Statistics

--

--

--

--

The opposing side will likely argue _____ about this point

--

Reasoning 3:

Evidence : Example, Story, Statistics

--

--

--

--

The opposing side will likely argue _____ about this point

--

Additional Notes: